

OL MALO HOUSE

Situated on the northern edge of the Laikipia plateau, Ol Malo House is built on the edge of a rugged escarpment looking out across the time-honoured lands of Kenya's Northern Frontier District. Ol Malo House is owned and hosted by Colin and Rocky Francombe and their son, Andrew.

Accommodation

Three ensuite double bedrooms

Two separate cottages adjacent to the House - one a double ensuite room and the second cottage has two double rooms ensuite and a small sitting room.

In total, Ol Malo House has a total of six bedrooms so the house can comfortably sleep 12 guests with lots of extra room for young.

Phone and camera batteries can be charged in rooms

Generator power - run morning and evenings and an inverter so bedside lights can be used at night

Hair dryers available for guest use

House Amenities

The house has a large sitting room and dining room.

Horizon swimming pool with superb views

The large area around the swimming pool has its own sitting, eating and BBQ area and is perfect for al fresco meals.

Masseuse - can be arranged but need prior warning

Intermittent Mobile network

Internet access

Meal Plan

Full board accommodation, including soft drinks, beer and house wine.

Included Activities

Game drives in the company of rangers and trackers

Night drives to see the nocturnal inhabitants

Game walks with an experienced guide

Horse riding for both experienced riders and novices

Camel rides across the plains

Mountain biking on the hilly terrain

Overnight in the Look Out by a water-hole which is visited by a variety of wildlife

Enquiries/Reservations:

Tel: 254 (020) 600457, 605108, 605980 • Fax: 254 (020) 605008
Email: info@bush-and-beyond.com • Website: www.bush-and-beyond.com

October 2007

Access

By private air charter flight direct to OI Malo airstrip (5 mins away).

By schedule to Nanyuki, departing daily from Wilson Airport. Connect with a private air charter to OI Malo.

Daily schedule from Nairobi to Loisaba (commencing 1st December 2007). Transfer to OI Malo is 40 mins and is included

Daily schedule to/from the Maasai Mara

Seasons

Closed April, May and November

Riding information

OI Malo has 15 horses - 8 rideable and the rest young horses coming on.

Small, Somali type horses/ponies - strong and good for trekking. Horses are schooled to trail riding.

All level of riders are provided for and children can be accommodated

Horses are used to going amongst the wildlife.

Type of saddles - mainly Argentinean saddles - some English

Equipment at lodge: Riding hats, riding jodhpurs or chaps, riding boots/shoes

Game seen on rides: Giraffe, zebra, gazelles, eland, oryx, occasional cat, elephant at certain times of year

No Polo or show jumping offered

Enquiries/Reservations:

Tel: 254 (020) 600457, 605108, 605980 • Fax: 254 (020) 605008
Email: info@bush-and-beyond.com • Website: www.bush-and-beyond.com

October 2007