Overall Winners

A TESTAMENT TO THE WANDERLUST OF Travel + Leisure readers: six of this year's top 10 hotels overall are safari lodges in Africa, including the No. 1 winner, Singita Grumeti Reserves, an eco-resort in northern Tanzania that's made a blazing return to the World's Best Awards. Almost a third of the properties are in the United States and Canada—a percentage that has remained constant since 2008—while the big surge was in Mexico and Central and South America, where the number of winning hotels in the top 50 increased fivefold this year.

Throughout the World's Best Awards, scores shown have been rounded to the nearest hundredth of a point; in the event of a true tie, properties, companies, or destinations share the same ranking.
