

Acacia House

Masai Mara Northern Conservancy

Located in a secluded valley in the north of the Masai Mara Northern Conservancy, at an altitude of 6,200 feet, Acacia House overlooks the famous Rekeru waterhole. From the comfort on ones verandah, guests can enjoy a vast array of wildlife and birdlife at very close quarters.

Our safari chefs produce uncomplicated but wonderfully imaginative meals which utilize skillful blends of flavours from the huge variety of exciting produce found in Kenya.

Accommodation

The house has two spacious bedrooms with ensuite bathrooms and there is a third attic bedroom, ideal for children. This third bedroom shares the second bathroom. As well there is a large sitting & dining room with fireplace and a den/office with television.

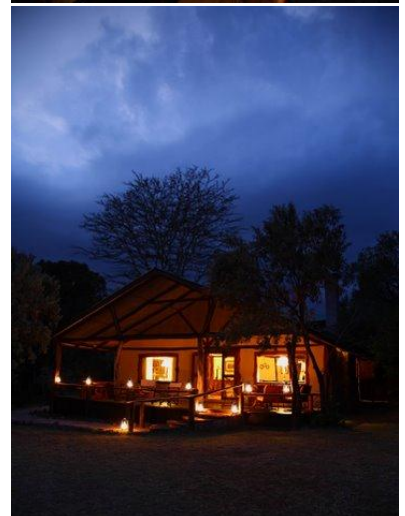

Power is provided 24 hours via the solar inverter. Please note the inverter cannot run hair dryers.
