

Oi Seki Mara Camp

Koiyaki/Masai Mara

Set on a rocky promontory, overlooking the Isupukiai River Valley, our luxury seasonal Oi Seki Camp enjoys panoramic views in a gorgeous wilderness area teeming with game on the eastern Koiyaki Conservancy, north of the Mara Reserve. The area provides a rare opportunity to enjoy wildlife viewing, in a pristine setting away from mass tourism. The oasis of inspired and beautifully designed tents is nestled amongst Cordia and Acacia trees attracting an abundance of wildlife and birds, many of which are seen from the tents in the valley below. The camp is hosted by Melinda Rees and a team of dedicated and friendly staff.

Accommodation

Six light and roomy “Nina” tents each with a double and single bed with a changing room and ensuite bathrooms.

Two “suited” tents comprising of two bed roomed tents and ensuite bathroom, either side of a private living/dining area. Guests staying in the suites will benefit from their own private kitchen and a dedicated team of staff for each unit. Each suite also has its own game viewing vehicle.

Lighting is by generator, inverter and solar power. Hair dryers can be used in tents when generator is on and with prior warning to management. Phone and camera batteries can be charged in tents. Lock up trunk in each tent for valuables.
