

Oi Malo House

Laikipia

Situated on the northern edge of the Laikipia plateau, Oi Malo House is built on the edge of a rugged escarpment looking out across the time-honoured lands of Kenya's Northern Frontier District. An ancient land inhabited by wildlife and peoples of a time long ago, undisturbed and living by the rhythm of nature, there, as part of this untamed and beautiful landscape is Oi Malo – Place of the Greater Kudu. Oi Malo House is owned and hosted by Colin and Rocky Francombe and their son, Andrew and his wife, Chyulu.

Accommodation

The main House has three double bedrooms with ensuite baths. Two separate cottages are adjacent to the House – one with a double bedroom and ensuite bath and the other with two double bedrooms with ensuite baths and a small sitting area. In total, Oi Malo House has six bedrooms so the house can comfortably sleep 12 guests with lots of room for young.

There is 24 hr. electricity provided by a battery storage inverter system. Hair dryers can be used in rooms with prior warning to management. Phone and camera batteries can be charged in rooms.
